

Are You a LASIK Candidate?

Are you between the ages of 18-60?

Yes - Good

No – The FDA requires you to be 18 to have LASIK surgery and typically by the age of 60 eye health begins to decline making LASIK not an optimal procedure

Are you Nearsighted with a prescription up to -12.0?

Yes - Good

No – We should consider alternatives to LASIK like EVO Vision ICL

Are you Farsighted with a prescription up to +5.0?

Yes - Good

No – We should consider alternatives to LASIK like RLE

Do you have an

Astigmatism?

Yes - Good

LASIK can correct astigmatism in most situations

No - Good

Do you have

Presbyopia

(the need for reading glasses)?

Yes - Good

LASIK can correct presbyopia - Monovision

No - Good

Has your prescription been relatively consistent for 12 months or more?

Yes - Good

No – It is important that your vision be stable “within tolerance” to ensure longevity of the results of your procedure

Are your eyes healthy

(no cataracts, retinal issues, current infections, etc.)?

Yes - Good

No – This may not be the right time for LASIK for you

For women, are you

Pregnant?

No - Good

Yes – You may not have LASIK while pregnant, there is no need to wait a specific length of time after your baby is born

For women, are you

Nursing?

No - Good

Yes - Good

LASIK is okay for nursing moms.